

L'ANNÉE HIPPIQUE

72th
edition

THE INTERNATIONAL EQUESTRIAN YEARBOOK

SINCE 1943

L'Année Hippique is a collector's item for the equestrian passionate with over a hundred events and dozens of human-interest stories. Since 1943, this yearbook has chronicled the most important events in equestrian sport, illustrated with world-class photographs and articles. At the end of each year, L'Année Hippique allows equestrian passionate to relive the atmosphere of the past season. The book provides a wonderful picture of the competitive dynamics of the major leagues and championships. With its detailed results section, L'Année Hippique is also an essential reference work for riders, trainers, owners, organizers, and sponsors.

L'Année Hippique is the ultimate coffee table book that will remain a beautiful memory forever.

Become a partner

By becoming a partner, you can make L'Année Hippique a very personal business gift and reach the equestrian community worldwide with your story. We offer the opportunity to have editorial pages in the book with a report on your stable or company by our editorial team.

Thousands of copies of L'Année Hippique are sent around the world, often as Christmas gifts from top stables and events. The renewed L'Année Hippique team has been pleasantly surprised by the great support from around the world.

We are proud of our partnership with leading equestrians such as McLain Ward, Ludger Beerbaum, Max Amaya, Jeroen Dubbeldam, Rodrigo Pessoa, François Mathy, Yuri Mansur, Stal Hendrix, Team Philippaerts and Lothlorien Farm. Organisations such as the International Jumping Riders Club, CHIO Aachen, Spruce Meadows, CHI Geneva and The Dutch Masters have also made significant contributions to this unique equestrian icon. There will be space available for a limited number of selected partners.
